Attacks on Horace Maynard,

The Rebel party seek to make personal issues every important race in the State, by getting up old issues the people care nothing about. This done to avoid the true and only issue before the country, which is loyalty and disloyalty. Are you a Union man or a Rebel? is the question. This idates of the rebel party dodge. Their attacks upon Maynard are made with a view to conceal the fact that John Williams is the candidate of the rebel party, and runs at the instance of America

On the first Thursday of August, Horace Maynard will beat John Williams by about eight thou-

The truth is neither Williams or his friends expect Maynard to be defeated. In opposing him the purpose is simply to divide the Union party and keep up the rebel organization for a future contest. So far as dividing the Union party, by running Williams, it is mere bosh. John Williams will not receive in the entire district one hundred votes which Isham G. Harris would not get. He will get the vote of the Rebel Copperhead party and nothing more. He will get the vote of that class of men who endorsed him in endorsing the Chicago platform on which McClellan ran for the Presidency, and which demanded an immediate cessation of bostilities, offering compromises to armed the State Government, and involve Tennestraitors and deciaring the war for the Union a see in civil war. In Middle and West Ten-

Williams will get the votes of that class of men traitors, who actually served in the rebel who endorsed him in opposing the re-election of Abraham Lincoln and denouncing him as a usur-

The people of this Congressional District know men, and their wish and aim is to destroy Horace Maynard, and have implicit confidence in both. In East Tennessee, the rebel papers his integrity and loyalty. They also know that he are conducted by former rebels and desertis the firiend of THE PROPER. That his sympais the firiend of THE PECTLE. That his sympathies are with the poor men, the mechanics and day bought for a price. The people are talking laborers of the country.

Words of Advice.

If the rebels of this Congressional District wish to render John Williams real service, let them get. up proof and circulate it broadcast, showing that he is not the candidate of the rebel party, and that all who favored the firing upon Fort Sumter, do not favor his election. Let them show that he is not now the candidate of the defunct slaveogratic party of this district; and that he was not a McClellan Elector in the late Presidential election, standing square-toed upon the Chicago Platform, saying the war was a failure, and no more money to carry it

Every robol paper in the State, edited by a trail tor that was in the rebel army is out for John, and in opposition to Horace. We are to judge of politicions by the company they keep, and of candidates by men who bring them out. der the military bill, and during his absence in Washington where he was urging injunction appli ations, Gen. Pope went so far as to write an order deposing him from office, without naming his sucessor, which he forwarded to Gen. Grant for his approval. Before receiving any reply, however, Gov. fenkins returned and made such explanations and ledges to Gen. Pope that he withdrew the contemlated order. Gen. Grant forwarded the order to the Secretary of War with the following indorse-
